PROFILE

I'm currently working as a Frontend Developer Intern, where I focus on building clean and responsive user interfaces. Along with frontend development, I also have strong knowledge of full-stack technologies like React.js, Node.js, Express, and MongoDB. I enjoy learning, solving UI issues, and improving overall user experience while growing my full-stack skills side by side.

PROJECT

Ishqraah - Full-Stack Social Platform (MERN)

- User Authentication: New user registration and secure login system.
- Friend System: Send, receive, and accept friend requests.
- Real-time Chat: Implemented live chat using Socket.io for instant messaging.
- Cloud Hosting: Deployed on AWS EC2
